

Margaret Briggs Chemistry Service Award Criteria for Selection

Minimum Qualifications and Terms of Award

1. Student is a science major and has completed Chemistry 101.
2. Student has been a department worker for one year.

Basis of Selection

1. A strong and unselfish commitment to the chemistry department, its educational program, and its students.
2. A very responsible student with integrity, who is hardworking and takes pride in his/her job.
3. Contribution to the chemistry program such as: special assistance to faculty members, chemistry representation in student government, and exceptional support for fellow chemistry students.

Selection Procedure

1. Selection committee is the existing Scholarship Committee or is appointed by the department chair from members of the Chemistry Department.
2. Chemistry faculty members submit names of prospective candidates for consideration.
3. A recipient need not be selected each year.
4. The recipient need not be a transferring or graduating student.